A Space Of Infinite Creation

NFTs Are Useless

The majority of NFTs are just media files with little to no utility, functionality, or purpose.

Creators face the ongoing challenge of needing to do "more", yet doing "more" is costly and difficult with existing infrastructure.
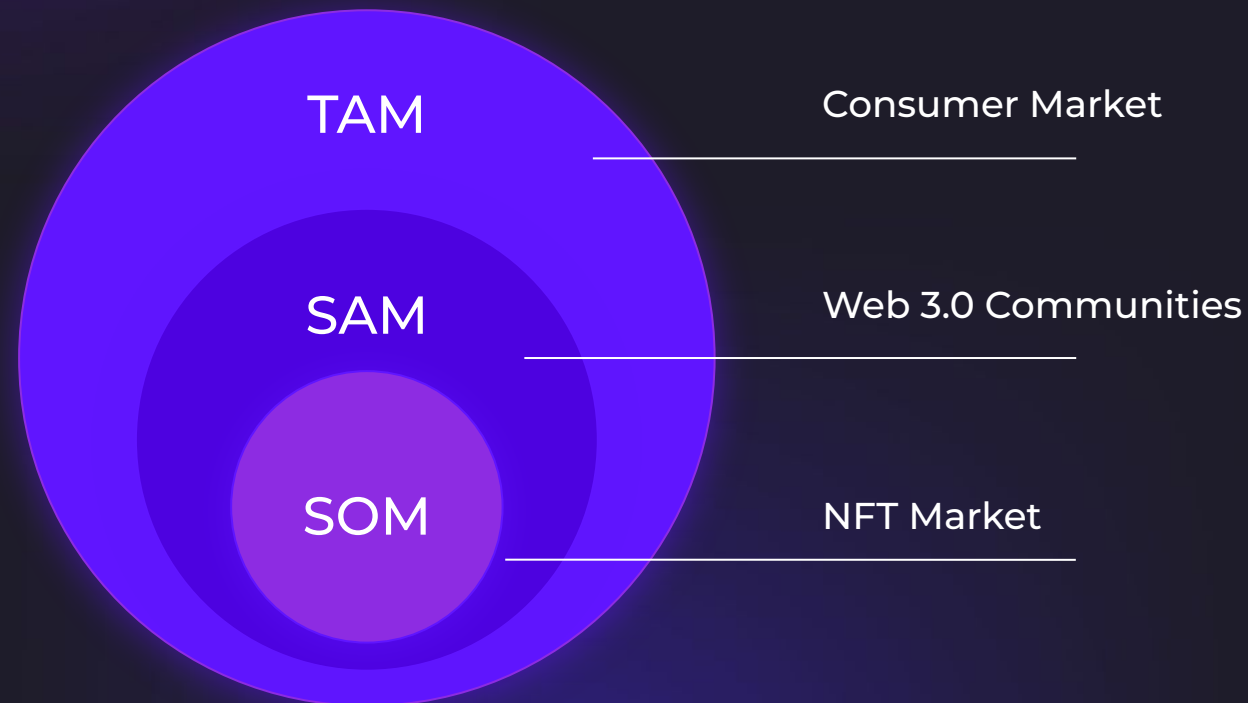

Gas fees and low TPS

Burden of "more"

Siloed developer communities and NFT ecosystems.

Opportunity

TIMELINE OF COMPANIES ENTERING THE NFT SPACE[1], U.S., JAN. 2021-OCT. 2021[2]

We see a huge opportunity in serving traditional Web2 companies and non-crypto native users to create consumer applications using NFTs as building blocks that can fit into existing business workflows.

Non-Fungible Gadget Protocol

Non-Fungible Gadget Protocol (NFGP) is the first logic-scaling solution for advanced Web3 app enablement.

Allows real-world data and complex logic to be programmed directly into an NFT

Fee-less, lighting fast and secure decentralized network

Stack/Language/Chain agnostic

Vision

Apps, not Apes

A new market for NFTs as SaaS applications.

ENTERPRISE

EVERYDAY-LIFE

What is an NFT app?

NFGP allows complex real-life data types to be assembled like Lego blocks to easily create mini software applications as NFTs, unlocking unprecedented new experiences and use cases.

A Space For Infinite Creation

NFGP enables new collaboration opportunities and additional revenue streams for both NFT creators and holders, empowering communities to actively participate in content creation and value generation while reducing reliance on the collections.

Mind blowing thread on @EnterTheVoidNFT 🤯

This thread is here to explain why The Void is not only perfectly positioned to be the "killer app" of Web3 mass adoption, but also set to disrupt the entire global economy... 🧵

It's weird, on one side I see NFTs with real utility and unique artwork...and on the other side a comic stone that sells for $500,000+.

Replying to @EnterTheVoidNFT
I speak to multiple web3 companies per week and think this is a HUGE step change. We know virtually every asset will go on chain over the coming years, representation of those assets is critical - 721 and 1155 are good, but don't cut it. #NFGP is a great idea!

Don't need to know Solidity or Rust using @EnterTheVoidNFT's data protocol, #NFGP. Devs interested in building on Web3 can use whatever language/stack they prefer to program smart #NFT applications. Changing the game what is currently possible with #ETH or #SOL.

What's gonna happen when #Crypto realizes @Er can take existing NFTs like @BoredApeYC and giv possible with #Etherum

I am so so so excited for @EnterTheVoidNFT 🤩🤩
